

TIME FOR A CHANGE

A recapitulation of the interest lost to the state through failure on the part of the treasurer and auditor of state to use even reasonable efforts to protect the state shows as follows: These items are computed at 2 1/2 per cent on balance, all of which are favorable to the officers:

1. Loss of interest on treasurer's balance of $748,000	$60,818 35
2. Loss of interest on auditor's balances in Capitol Trust company of $96,000 ..	5,802 05
3. Loss of interest on auditor's balances in M. & M. and Union National Bank of $97,000	22,554 52
4. Loss of interest on Secretary of State L. C. Laylin's balance of $50,000 ..	7,552 00
5. Loss of interest on Secretary of State C. A. Thompson's balance of $63,000 ..	1,364 25

Total interest lost at 2 1/2 per cent. $98,091 17

These computations are at "Simple Interest." They relate to only the obvious and accessible facts; such facts as the committee were able to ascertain without access to the real records in the banks themselves.—Extract from Report of Senate Committee on Investigation of State Auditor's Office and State Treasury.

Declares for free and unqualified home rule for the cities and villages of Ohio.

Demands just and equitable tax system.

Favors taxation of franchises.

Approves of child labor law enacted by last session of legislature as a Democratic measure and favors eight-hour day on public work.

Favors employer's liability act for protection of employees.

Favors liberal appropriations for road improvement and rehabilitation of canals.

Arraigns control of state affairs by Republican machine and declares that every reason and motive which swell the tide of indignation against Republican rule in Ohio three years ago exists now.

Declares Republican state primary was a sham and the state convention held in accordance therewith as the most completely bossed political gathering ever assembled in Ohio.

Waived declaration on national issues with full confidence of proper expression thereon by national convention at Denver and enthusiastically endorsed William J. Bryan for president.

HARRIS TRIED, AND FAILED

Every voter in Ohio who voted for John M. Pattison for governor in 1905 should vote this year for Judson Harmon for governor, if he would have the good work of renovating the state house continued.

Governor Harris did not continue the work begun by his predecessor, and will not. Under Governor Harris one state institution after another has been involved in scandal, and the state house has reeked with rottenness except in three offices filled by appointees of Governor Pattison. If the people of Ohio want reform, they must depend on Judson Harmon, the lifelong friend of Governor Pattison, eulogist at the funeral of the dead governor and orator at the memorial services for the late lamented governor at the state house.

JUDSON HARMON STANDS FOR HONEST GOVERNMENT AND ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS, AS DID GOVERNOR PATTISON. TO CARRY ON REFORMS BEGUN BY JOHN M. PATTISON THE PEOPLE MUST ELECT HARMON FOR GOVERNOR.

Harris can not do it because he is dominated by the bosses. In the midst of the state house investigations he took part in secret conferences with Guilbert and Guilbert's advisers, instead of performing his duty as required by law. Harris has been tried, and failed.

Harmon will not fail.

IT IS TIME FOR A CHANGE.

BRYAN ON GUARANTEED DEPOSITS

Our banks are good, and yet, my friends, when a bank suspends payment on checks you need not be surprised if the ultra-timid become alarmed and want to get their money out. If I were a banker I would not be proud of a system that had to run rivalry with a carpet as a safety deposit vault, and have the carpet preferred in times of stress. (Laughter.)

A man does not hide money under a carpet if he can find any safer place. (Laughter.) I REPEAT THAT WHAT WE NEED TODAY IS TO MAKE THE BANK SAFE. You may laugh down here in New York, but in Oklahoma—you call it a wild western state—the first thing they did was to pass a law to guarantee bank deposits.

In anticipation of the operation of that law, the bankers of Kansas petitioned their governor to call a special session of the legislature to pass a law like it so as to keep the money from being drawn out of Kansas banks and deposited in Oklahoma.

I welcome the prospect of guaranteed banks, because I think it will enable us to get some regulation that we need.—Extract from William J. Bryan's speech before the Economic Club of New York, Feb. 5, 1908.

WHAT HARMON STANDS FOR

"If the fight were simply for office, I would not be in it. But there are principles at stake. I would not be own account. If I could not stand for something other than the mere office I would not stand at all. The people have a right to rule in this country. They have a right to put into practice the principles enunciated by the Democratic party at Denver. What gives us courage in this campaign and enthusiasm for victory is the Democracy that William Jennings Bryan stands for, the Democracy that you advocate and that I stand for."—Judson Harmon to Ohio Democratic Editors.

THOMPSON HAS HIS TROUBLES

Caused by Entangling Alliance With the Bosses.

CURRIED FAVOR WITH COX

Threw Down Speaker Eagleson at Celebrated Convention of Bosses. Embroiled in Gallia County's Factional Fight—Republican Party at Gallipolis Scores Him — Sherman Eagle's Charge.

When the matter of creating a new investigating committee to probe Cincinnati was before the state legislature at its session this year it was charged that Secretary of State Carmi A. Thompson acted as emissary between Speaker Eagleson and George B. Cox, with a view to having chosen from the Republican branch of the legislature members who would be acceptable to the Cincinnati boss.

The story goes that Cox was to support Speaker Eagleson for lieutenant governor, and that Thompson promised Eagleson the support of the Tenth district.

In this way Thompson made himself "solid" with the big boss at Cincinnati for re-nomination. It may have been necessary for him to do so, for it is well known that even judges in the courts at Cincinnati are not permitted to be candidates for a second term if they do anything objectionable to Cox during their first term.

On account of the deal between Cox, Guilbert, Brown, Vorys and Burton, to nominate Francis W. Treadwell of Cleveland, a former member of the legislature, for lieutenant governor, Cox could not give Eagleson the solid vote of Hamilton county, but gave him the bulk of it and divided the rest of the votes among the other candidates.

It was a noticeable fact that not one county in the Tenth district gave Eagleson its vote, not even Lawrence, which is Thompson's home county, so that Eagleson failed to realize on Thompson's promise.

Secretary Thompson is now the storm center of other political troubles within his own party. His allegiance to the statehouse syndicate, Guilbert, Harris, McKinnon, Green, Fullington, Brown, Vorys and Cox, through the intrigues of the state convention, has involved him in factional difficulties with former friends.

The hottest of these is the Gallia county embroilment, in which Thompson has joined issues with the Switzer faction against the Eagle faction, concerning which the Gallia Times, a Republican paper, contained several scorching editorials in its issue of Aug. 19, from which the following extracts are taken:

"The history of the dealing of Carmi Thompson, secretary of state, with the local factional fight of the Republicans in Gallia, forms a dark shadow on the honest administration of the affairs of this state. He stands convicted by his own conduct and admissions of the rankest act of attempted political robbery that any state official, to our knowledge, has ever been guilty of."

It is a matter of more than passing interest when the secretary of state prostitutes his office to the lowest degradation of factional politics, and, in a matter of grave concern when any branch of our government steps from its legitimate field into the realm of intimidation and intrigue, and, at all times, yet that is exactly where Carmi Thompson has dragged and trailed his besetted official robes.

In the minimum of which have arisen in Gallia county politics the secretary of state of Ohio has been an intensely factional, pre-judged and bitter partisan, conduct wholly unworthy of his office, and both willing and anxious to use his official authority in all possible ways for his master.

"Think of it! The secretary of state of Ohio deliberately using the authority of his high office in an attempt to run men of his own party of their rights under the law! It would be incredible were it not proven by the words from his own mouth uttered because of a weakness which never fails to betray a false and perfidious man at some point in his career."

In connection with this same embroilment Sherman Eagle, postmaster of Gallipolis and Republican candidate for representative in the legislature, issued a burning statement in which he charges that State Secretary Thompson assumed to have advance knowledge of how the supreme court would decide the matter if it reached that tribunal. On that point Mr. Eagle said:

"He did not care whether he was within his legitimate powers or outside of them. He was simply willing to use his office in an unlawful manner in order to attempt to help out one faction against another, and he at the same time holds a great office of a great state. I did not say he was guilty of anything in the court and in the decision that they might render were the matter ever to come before that tribunal, and this notwithstanding the fact that Secretary Thompson told me which way the supreme court would decide the matter. I understand that he has told like stuff to other persons and I do not care to speak of them unless I am forced to do so by further unwarranted persecution of me and my friends by him."

ANOTHER LUXURY. According to the ruling of an Indiana judge, a night dress is a luxury. Sure it is in these days of "Republican prosperity."—New Haven Union.

THEY ARE NOT PEASANTS. Roosevelt's commission may find out that the best way to increase the happiness of the farmers is to let them alone.—Nashville American.

SAFE PROPOSITION. A magazine offered Roosevelt $2 a word for his forthcoming African letters; whereupon a western editor made him an offer of $25 a word for a list of the trusts he has "busted." Mr. Taft being "their" apparent, it would be safe to offer $50 a word for a list of trusts he would "bust" if elected to continue "my policies."

"NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS"

The Way McKinnon and His Deputy, Who Wants to Succeed Him, Regard Their Official Obligations to the People.

When W. S. McKinnon, state treasurer, was testifying before the senate investigating committee March 10, he was asked:

"Don't you think it is the business of the state to know whether you are doing business with banks in which you are part owner?"

Mr. McKinnon replied: "I do not."

"Are you a stockholder in any Columbus bank that is a state depository?"

"Yes, I am."

"What bank?"

"Oh, I know what you are driving at. You have made charges in the senate that I was lending money to banks in which I was a stockholder at a less rate than I have to other banks. It is an absolute falsehood."

"But what bank have you held stock in that has state money?"

"Well, the Columbus Savings and Trust company." This is the bank of which Auditor Guilbert is president.

"What other banks?"

"NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS."

Charles C. Green, Mr. McKinnon's deputy, now Republican candidate for state treasurer, was asked: "Have you stock in any banks?"

"Yes, in two or three, and I wish I had more."

"What banks?"

"I do not believe you have any right to ask."

"You have no right to pry into our private affairs," interposed Mr. McKinnon.

How will the people of Ohio answer in November?

TAFT CAN NOT DODGE HIS INJUNCTION RECORD.

Mr. Taft is a lawyer and he says organized labor can "with-draw themselves and their associates from dealings with or giving custom to those with whom they are in controversy." He says it, however, as a candidate. As a judge he sent Frank Phelan to jail for doing it. The supreme court mulcted the Hatters' union for doing it. The District of Columbia court cited labor leaders for contempt for doing it, and quoted Mr. Taft's injunction order for its authority. Mr. Taft is not an expert dodger, even though he practices regularly. He can't dodge the injunction record he made when he was a judge.

WHICH SHALL RULE, PEOPLE OR TRUSTS?

It was as easy as it was consistent for Mr. Sherman, candidate on the Taft ticket for vice president, to say in his acceptance speech that the question, "Shall the People Rule?" is not an issue.

He is entirely right, according to "the interests" he represents and Mr. Taft stands for in this campaign.

With these interests, the only question is, "Shall the trusts continue to rule?" It is easy to see that when the question comes up in the way "the interests" look at it the people are not in it.

There are more people than trusts, and the election this year is to decide which shall control the next administration at Washington.

Time For a Change.

Never before in the history of Ohio has there been such open grafting, I state and county offices. The whole power of the Republican state political machine is being used to retain the corruptionists in power. Even the judiciary of Hamilton county has been prostituted to prevent an investigation of Cox's rotten machine. We should elect our best men to county and state offices and send honest, pure and capable men to the next legislature.—Madison County Democrat.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Ohio relative to the passage of bills.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio: That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this state at the next general election, to amend the constitution of the state of Ohio so that sections 18 to 22, both inclusive, of article 11, shall be repealed, and sections 18 to 22, both inclusive, of article 11, shall be amended as follows:
